Lenten Reflection

Today, both scriptures have references to our “Amazing Grace” study. “I was blind but now I see” comes from verse 25 in John when the blind man can see. John also references the light, “I am the light of the world”. Ephesians references the light, “For once you were darkness, but now in the Lord you are light.” Verse 2 of Amazing Grace says, “How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed”. We may have little memory of when we “first believed”; others may recall it without hesitation. Either/or it was a powerful moment of belief in God that overwhelmed us with “the light”. As we become older, we need to allow our hearts to be open with childlike wonder and let grace pour in and replace every darkened corner with the light of Christ. (adapted from “How Sweet the Sound” reflections by Sarah Hart)

Give up bitterness---turn to forgiveness.
Give up hatred---return good for evil.

Welcome!

We are so glad that you have joined us this morning. For those new or returning to the church, welcome home. God calls us all to Himself, and it's our conviction – we're here to prove it – that spiritually, Christianity is most fully lived out in the congregation of God's people. You figured out we're not all together, but we're working on this journey of faith and we are glad you have come along with us for the ride.

Please worship with us on Sunday mornings in person, livestream on our website which is www.faithumcjax.org (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NOSEd\_lwXcs) or on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/faithumcjax>
